Honesty

To yourself and others,
here's what to do.
Always be honest.
Always be true.

I've learned a few things
in this life of mine,
about doing what's right,
all of the time.

It's not always easy
to do what you should.
But, you've got the choice
to choose what is good.

To yourself and others,
here's what to do.
Always be honest.
Always be true.

If you choose to be honest,
then you choose to be fair,
an example for others
to follow and share.
I've learned being honest
is the best thing to do.
To always be honest,
always be true.

To yourself and others,
here's what to do.
Always be honest.
Always be true.
